Dec. 25, 1932
Merry Christmas
To Edna from Ruth

Only four years are filled in – 1933 through 1936, with the 1936 entries becoming less frequent during the year. Mary was 31 when she started the diary.

January 1

1933

Went to Weott & took Mrs. Frost. In the evening went out riding & saw “dead wagon,” & two Speed Cops speeding to some where. There's some mystery there

1934

Took Mrs. Frost & went to Blue Lake & it just poured while we were there. Went for a ride in the evening & it was still raining. Papa worked until three in the afternoon. None of us felt so very well

1935

Took Mrs. Frost & went up to Prairie Creek. Was a wonderful day only cold when we got close to the snow. Stayed home in the evening & sewed. Dad didn't have to work today at all.

1936

Stayed home all day & Mrs. Frost came over & ate dinner with us. Rained hard & the wind blew a regular gale. Billy Williams & the Selvage boy were badly hurt today

January 2

1933

Took a drive to Arcata & had a good time. Rained hard all day. Mystery solved: A William Kindard killed & A Bill Kissick hurt on Wizard Nursery Road

1934

Went up town in the morning & stayed home the rest of the day. Mary's C.C.C. friend came up this evening & we played cards until twelve. It rained all day & most of the evening.

1935

Stayed home all day & made a night gown. Spent the evening over to Mrs. Frost's. Had a slight earth quake about two & it surely scared us. Was a real nice day only quite cold

1936

Mr. Conant died this evening. Papa started to work on the tramp.ⁱ Was quite foggy & not so very warm either. Mary stayed home in the afternoon & read. Started my new coat by cutting it out.

January 3

1933

Not a thing happened out of the ordinary & it was a very quiet day. Went for a ride in the evening & drove all around town.

1934

Went for a ride in the afternoon & it was quite rainy. Spent the evening over at Mrs. Frost's. Boiled our clothes & put them in tubs until a nice day came along.

1935

Have had the hottest weather this month than we have had in years. Didn't have even a slight earth quake, so that's pretty good. Haven't had much rain either.

EUREKA, Cal., June 24.—Two thousand members of Humboldt county labor unions, friends and relatives of William Kaarte, lumber strike picket killed during Friday's riot, attended his funeral today.

All unions of the Federated Council of Labor Organizations were ordered out to attend the rites.

As the funeral was held police kept close watch over the city and its surrounding lumber mills to prevent recurrence of the bloody rioting that cost Kaarte's life and resulted in arrest of more than 120 demonstrators.

The Eureka national guard unit also was held in readiness for instant action in event of further disorders. Guard units in adjacent counties also were instructed to be prepared to move into the redwood lumber area if needed.

^{iv} Francis Everett Townsend was an American physician who was best known for his revolving old-age pension proposal during the Great Depression. Known as the "Townsend Plan", this proposal influenced the establishment of the Roosevelt administration's Social Security system. See Spring 2000 Humboldt Historian, page 5 for more information about the family involvement in the local Townsend Club.

^v This was three days after Al Smith said he would no longer support FDR because of the New Deal, and accused Roosevelt of betraying the Democratic Party.

^{vi} "Jigsaw puzzles soared in popularity during the Great Depression, as they provided a cheap, long-lasting, recyclable form of entertainment. It was around this time that jigsaws evolved to become more complex and more appealing to adults. They were also given away in product promotions, and used in advertising, with customers completing an image of the product being promoted." https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Jigsaw_puzzle

^{xxix} The Great Strike of Humboldt County. “William Kaarte, a 62-year-old woods cook, died instantly after he was shot in the throat. Paul Lampella, a young guy, was hit in the head. His eye popped out on his face and he was screaming bloody murder. Insane, his facial muscles tightly constricted by paralysis, he lived until August 7th. Harold Edlund, 35, a chopper employed by the Pacific Lumber Co., was mortally wounded in the chest while assisting Lampella. He died on the evening of June 24th. Ole Johnson was wounded in a leg which subsequently required amputation. Many others were wounded as well.” See Chapter 2 of Redwood Uprising, by Steve Ongert at <https://www.judibari.info/book/2>

Gulliver with a crew of 60 officers and sailors, 15 Marines, and a pet monkey named Rosie that was their mascot. The tour began at Portsmouth, New Hampshire with much celebration and a 21-gun salute, scheduled to visit 90 port cities along the Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific coasts. Due to the schedule of visits on her itinerary she was towed by the minesweeper Grebe. She went as far north as Bar Harbor, Maine, south and into the Gulf of Mexico then through the Panama Canal Zone, and north again to Bellingham, Washington on the Pacific Coast. Constitution returned to her home port of Boston in May 1934 after more than 4.6 million people visited her during the three-year tour.”
